RACE 1: WESTSIDE VEGIE PATCH / SABOIS MAIDEN PLATE - 1396 metres

DESERT MINTY (K. Crowther) – approaching the 400 metres improved onto the heels of LESONDEA, which was weakening, had to be steadied and lost its position.

UNCLE KENNETH (NZ) (A. Jordsjo) – jumped away awkwardly and shifted out. When Stewards questioned the rider as to her reason into not riding her mount out to the finish, she explained that in the vicinity of the 300 metres she became concerned with the gelding's breathing and in her opinion, it may have chocked down. She added that for this reason from the vicinity of the 100 metres she elected not to ride her mount out to the finish. When further questioned regarding her decision to again place the gelding under pressure over the concluding stages, she stated that she panicked when being challenged approaching the finish. Stewards advised A. Jordsjo that in future if she has concerns with her mounts she must not continue to place them under pressure.Rider was reprimanded under AR140(b) for failing to report anything that may have affected the runner's performance during the event. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no visible abnormalities.
