RACE 7 : DOMINANT HANDICAP - 1600 metres

When questioned regarding her riding of CONDUCTION in the early stages of this event, C. Lindop stated that in pre-race discussions, Mr. D. Jolly, the Trainer of CONDUCTION, had mentioned the gelding was hard and fit and expected to lead but had expressed concerns that it might be nearing the end of its current preparation.

C. Lindop stated that in the barriers OREGON SPIRIT, in the adjoining stall, had been quite restless and as a consequence CONDUCTION, which was being held by an Attendant, had not jumped well. In order to clear the field and to show her hand, having regard to her instructions, C. Lindop said she had ridden CONDUCTION positively for a number of strides but after getting to the front, the gelding had not settled and contended that her attempts to restrain it had seemingly caused CONDUCTION to be keener in its work.

Mr. Jolly confirmed his instructions and advised CONDUCTION had been sent for a spell.

After considering her explanation and having reviewed the official vision, the Stewards advised C. Lindop her explanation would be reported.
