ADDITIONAL STEWARDS' REPORT – TRAINER S. KAVANAGH

MORPHETTVILLE – THURSDAY, 5 SEPTEMBER 2013

An inquiry into a report received from the South Australian Jockey Club relating to the alleged conduct of Trainer, Mr. S Kavanagh at trackwork and comments made by him on social media, was conducted at the offices of Thoroughbred Racing SA on Thursday, 5 September 2013 via telephone.

Stewards considered the report, along with the social media post, and a letter from Mr. A Thompson, an owner of Mr. Kavanagh's, who was present at the track when the alleged conduct occurred.

Mr. Kavanagh was reminded of his obligations in conducting himself in a manner expected by a Licensed Trainer in relation to the alleged conduct at trackwork.

Mr. Kavanagh was found guilty of a charge under AR.175(q), the particulars being that he conducted himself in an improper manner by making a derogatory comment about a South Australian Jockey Club staff member via social media on Monday, 22 July 2013 and was fined $500.

Mr. Kavanagh was informed of his right of appeal.
