THOROUGHBRED RACING SA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

10 APRIL 2013

Win a seat at racing's biggest night

It's the industry's 'Night of Nights' – the Thoroughbred Racing SA 2012/2013 Industry Awards and Hall of Fame Dinner – and now two lucky racing fans can win seats at this gala event.

The competition is simple.

Thoroughbred Racing SA is asking race fans to make an early call on who's going to be the 2012/2013 Metropolitan Jockey and Trainer of the Year.

Last year it was Tony McEvoy (Trainer) and Matthew Neilson (Jockey), but who's it going to be this time around?

Entries which correctly name the two premiership winners will go in to the draw for a pair of seats at the Thoroughbred Racing SA 2012/2013 Industry Awards and Hall of Fame Dinner.

The big event will be held on Saturday 24 August 2013 at the Stamford Grand Adelaide in Glenelg.

"For any lover of racing, it's a simply brilliant night," said Jim Watters, Thoroughbred Racing SA Chief Executive.

THOROUGHBRED RACING SA

“You get to rub shoulders with more than 400 of the best people in SA thoroughbred racing – past and present – everyone gathered together to have a great time and to recognise the achievements of the state’s top jockeys, apprentices, trainers and horses.

“That’s a prize worth winning!”

The winner will also take home a one year subscription to The Races magazine – the official publication of Thoroughbred Racing SA.

To enter simply go to www.theracessa.com.au and follow the links.

The competition closes on Tuesday 30 April 2013 and is limited to one entry per person.

Full terms and conditions are available on the website.
