

MEDIA RELEASE

THOROUGHBRED RACING SA

8 May 2016

TRSA Statement | Luke Nolen

Luke Nolen remains in a serious but stable condition in the Intensive Care Unit of the Royal Adelaide Hospital where he is being treated for injuries sustained in yesterday's fall at Morphettville.

His wife Alicia advises that he is being treated for broken ribs, a broken collarbone and a broken shoulder. He also has some bruising of his liver and spleen, but he has no head injuries and is resting comfortably.